Mosquera's accomplishments—laying down the foundation of what would become the United States of Colombia and speaking out about modernization and economical opportunity—are explored alongside his tough personality, his loves and falling outs, his scandalous relationships, his early conservative political beliefs and his later liberal leanings, and his decrees of religious freedom.

El legado apasionado y complejo del General Tomás Cipriano de Mosquera, una de las figuras principales de la política colombiana durante el siglo diecinueve porque fuera edecán de Bolívar y presidente de Colombia más de una vez, está detallado en esta biografía. Los logros de Mosquera incluyen el establecimiento del principio de los Estados Unidos de Colombia y hablar antes de nadie sobre la modernización y oportunidades económicas.
