Isabelle looks at the paper and is ecstatic to find the news. Can she do it? She has waited for the moment to leave never thinking it would come. She knows that she is being dishonest and hates herself for it but knows there is no other way to get away from the abuse she has lived every day since her parent's death. She will be a mail order bride and get the free travel. She plans on leaving before she meets up with the new husband.

Events turn and she finds herself in Shawn's lap. He is the one that sent for her. She is disturbed to find out that he is actually a werewolf. The biggest problem is that he is tender and kind and makes her want to believe in men caring for their women. Can she leave her past back in Iowa and open her heart once more or will she be scared and run from something that could make her happier than she has ever been?

Julie has just withstood a blow. The one person who meant the world to her. The only person she had is now gone. After the death of her father she finds that he has entrusted her to his best friend. Although she has met her uncle Ricky multiple times she has never met his son

Jeremy. An old pact from long ago has promised her to him and now she faces not only a foreign land and people but husband too. She does the only thing she knows. Taking a deep breath she faces forward and takes it one day at a time. Then everything is revealed to her and not only does she find out things that are real in the world but in her own bloodline as well.

Jeremy doesn't want to be married and least of all to some woman he doesn't even know. She is of his people and with a sigh of anger he follows through with his father's wishes. When he finds out that she is more than he thought he realizes that she may not be that bad. He likes women and hates he is destined to be with only one woman.

From the first time she meets her new husband with his arm around another woman to their wedding night she regrets coming to this country until he touches her. With his lips and body he tells her everything he can't speak aloud.
