Tempted, But Holy!: Biblical insights from my life with Same-Sex Attraction Toby Knoblauch M.A.

"I wrote this book to show that the gay debate is really a spiritual war about the father heart of God. I am convinced that God wants to redeem Same-Sex Attraction in the lives of many, so that they become people who passionately, but in absolute holiness and purity love others as God the Father loves His children." Toby Knoblauch Giving a very personal account of his own journey, the author shares some biblical principles that will help every Christian not only to understand the issue of Same-Sex Attraction but the struggle with temptation in general. Because God did not promise to take our weaknesses away, we have to learn to live with them. We have to wage war on sin, but we need to make peace with our weakness, for it is here that the Lord wants to reveal His strength to a desperate and confused world around us. Among the issues addressed are: - Why God wants us to be tempted - Our old nature and the Spirit - The reality of spiritual warfare - Benefits and limits of counseling - God's discipline in our lives - The battle about the father heart of God - How the Lord can redeem SSA
