Raining Cats and Dogs Activity Book Ms Cheryl Ann Blair

This activity book was written to accompany our figurative poetry book, "Raining Cats and Dogs and other figurative language poems" also available here. It has interactive task cards for students with a record sheet for easy grading. There are activity sheets for all of the poems featured in the book. In addition, there are five 8x10 sized display pages that define each of the five figurative language methods used such as onomatopoeia, similes, metaphors, hyperbole, and personification. This will save the teacher and home-school parent time while assessing the student's understanding of the poems and the types of figurative language used to create them. Elementary curriculum requires poetry, and figurative language to be taught both in the TEKS and Common Core curriculum. The book is written in both English and Spanish, and this activity book is the English only version.
