Seven years after a painful and unexplained breakup, High School sweethearts Avery and Drew are forced apart, their hearts crushed, their fates ripped in separate directions...both determined to never go back to their lives in the Atrocitas werebear clan.

Avery held true to her promise, struck off on her own, went to college, and escaped the life of monotony and boredom. However, her life has become isolating and she yearns for a love lost long ago.

Drew, now a powerful and wealthy businessman, works in the outside world, forced to hide his shifter secret, unable to have meaningful relationships for fear of being discovered. Still tortured by the worst decision he's ever made, his promise has left him forever under the thumb of the Alpha's wicked and sinister wife, Seraphina.

Years later, the two young lovers reconnect at a funeral for Drew's father held on clan lands. As Avery adjusts to Drew's new lifestyle, she realizes that there is a darkness hovering over his life. And yet, as Drew and Avery slowly rekindle the love they once shared, strange and deadly things begin happening all around them, and Drew knows all too well that they aren't accidents...and they'll have to fight for their life.
