Mother, May I? Grace Maccarone

A rhyming story that reveals the unconditional love between mother and child. With padded covers and card-stock pages!

Mother, may I go outside?

Mother, will we walk or ride?

In this sweet rhyming story a mother and child take a trip to the mall, where the child asks his mother for a present: a basketball, a toy, or a pet ("A parakeet, a snake, a guppie/A guinea pig, a mouse, a puppy..."). In the end, though, all the child really wants is a great big hug... ("and, Mother, may I keep this bug?").

Charming watercolor illustrations are by Melissa Sweet.

This book features padded covers with rounded corners and card-stock pages.
