Tales of Destiny Edmund Mitchell

"[...]prosperity that there is a fit dower for each daughter without my treasury knowing the loss. "So when the learned mullah from Stamboul denounced infanticide, I was one with him in sympathy, for my inclination is to cherish with love and care every female child the gods send. "Now would you hear how a Rajput came to this manner of thinking? My story is that of a little maid. Listen. It happened just five years gone by.[...]".
