Vice Grip: Book One of The Blood Bound Trilogy (The Blood Bound Series) (Volume 1) Samantha Procida

The day never comes and the monsters that go bump in the night run rampant throughout the world. Lark is seventeen and wants nothing more than to join his fellow rovers in protecting the human borders. He's willing to give all of himself just to save his family and friends, even if the recipient is a demon. Phenex is a corporeal demon, living in the physical plane for one reason and one reason only: Human desires. Demons can't experience human emotions, but earthly pleasures keep Phenex and his nest attracted to their current lifestyle. But to maintain this way of living, they need blood. Human blood. But when arch demons, referred to as "The Ancients", start to encroach on both the demon and human territories, both worlds are expected to fall under peril. A book of romance, action, and comedy with the major theme of exploring what being human is really all about. Welcome to the world of Vice Grip.
