Madeline Davis is a young woman climbing to the top of the corporate ladder at PharmaCO. Her intelligence, beauty and ability to think quickly are the driving forces behind an important company merger. Vincent Marks is the dominant, promiscuous CEO whose revolutionary business tactics have gotten him noticed nationally. A request for Madeline to travel to New York to work personally with Mr. Marks has several consequences that lurch them both into a web of uncertainty. Will the two finally change for the better, or will skeletons ensure that they never love again?
