Secrets Of My Sissy Maid: Abigail's Gift Janice C Parker

Have you wondered why a male would want to serve a woman dressed like her maid? Have you ever asked yourself what makes a sissy maid yearn to serve? After all isn't serving a Mistress like a real maid demanding work? Janice sheds light on these questions in this sizzling intimate examination of her own maid. Mistress Janice Parker attempts to answer these questions and put your mind at ease in Secrets Of My Sissy Maid. Readers will delve deep inside the mind of her personal sissy maid Merri in compelling interviews conducted by Janice's good friend Linda Summers. The author is plain spoken as usual. Even when sharing intensely personal details her style will make you feel as though you are sitting with Janice and discussing her maid with her while you are being served a soothing cup of tea by her maid. Even a knowledgeable woman may have guilt feelings when directing her maid to work. Do you ever feel a twinge of guilt ordering your maid to take out her vacuum? Perhaps you have had second thoughts when she is busy in the laundry room. If you have guilt feelings or heaven forbid if you are wondering if it was something that you did to cause his intensive desire to submit and to serve you then you will enjoy this captivating look at what put a real sissy maid into her place in panties, bra, and her own uniform. If you have ever wanted to know the innermost secret thoughts harbored inside of a sissy maid this is the book for you. It provides alluring insight for both Mistresses and submissives—don't be left out!
