The surprising thing about the Hitler phenomena is not how much but how little is known of this remarkable revolutionary. Thanks to freer self-publishing, and the internet, we now know victors' propaganda was never intended to inform; its purpose was to misinform. Undeniably, the great German social reformer was the most popular leader in European history. Germany's future leader, as a 16-year old, beheld a vision. He was destined to follow the path of Rienzi, the Roman tribune who revolted against corrupt government and perished when overwhelmed by his foes. World War Two is dubbed 'the war of the dictators'. True, neither Stalin nor Churchill was elected. U.S. President Roosevelt narrowly squeaked in after falsely reassuring the electorate that he would not involve the U.S in wars abroad. In 1945, U.S. President Truman was parachuted in without the people's vote. Only Adolf Hitler could truthfully claim to have been democratically elected. A glance at this remarkable book's contents will surely inspire you to learn more.
