Excerpt from The Chief Points of Difference Between the Catholic and Protestant Creeds

A thorough discussion of the points of difference is what is chiefly required by bona fide inquirers from without the fold, and to such inquirers this book is dedicated. It is hoped that to such inquirers no expression in this book will appear aggressive. In the impersonal atmosphere of a book of this kind, plain speaking is required and permissible, but there was far from the mind of the author any intention to be unkind or uncharitable. The attacks upon erroneous belief should not be misunderstood to be attacks on erroneous believers.

Also to inquirers from within the fold this book will be helpful, in enlightening them upon important matters of faith, and in enabling them to enlighten others who, with a good will, ask them for information.
