Have you ever wanted to have a conversation with your child but they were too young to understand what you truly meant at the time? Have you ever wanted to express your Love and Admiration to your child but you just couldn't seem to get all of the right words to say at that very moment? Have you ever wanted the world to know how much your child meant to you and how they saved your life? Have you ever wanted to leave a footprint in the Universe so when your child grew to be an adult they could reflect upon a time when their parents told anyone who would listen that they were in Love with their them and that would inspire them to do the same for their children someday? Well this is what "Conversations With My Son" is all about! My son has inspired me in so many ways to show the world how much I Love, Respect, Admire and Adore him and because of him I have truly learned how to LOVE. I can give many gifts to him that would make him happy but the GIFT of being his Father is the Greatest. I hope that I can inspire MILLIONS to do the same. I LOVE YOU SON. I may be your Hero but guess what? You are MINE ALSO!
