Topaz and Tides (The Tienimi Club Series) (Volume 3) Aurelia Fray

Every day I read my phone messages. There are dozens and all from him. He promises me he loves me then vows to hurt me. He says he wants me back and then calls me horrific names. I don't mind the messages, though. I don't mind them as long as they end the same way: "Where are you?" As long as he keeps asking the question, I know I am safe. And if he stops? If he stops, I'm as good as dead." Harry needs to hide. On the run from her abusive ex and intent on hiding wounds that have scarred beyond what the eye can see, Harry swallows her pride and travels halfway around the world to seek the aid of an old friend. She needs help. She needs somewhere to keep her head down and pull herself together so she can recover from the damage Donovan inflicted. But all of Harry's expectations are shattered the second she steps foot in Tienimi, the exclusive and private resort owned by her friend. Tienimi is not just a hideaway, it is a haven. A place where friends become saviors, strangers become lovers, and dreams become realities. The only problem is, for someone like Harry, dreams can be nightmares.
