The Word of Janus Patrick David Daley

Sean Brennan has returned to Janus, an uncharted island in the North Atlantic. Brought there by the Spirit's demands, he soon becomes an unwilling participant in a series of events that force Sean to consider a life predestined for him through the words in a two-thousand-year-old document. Unwilling to follow the path determined for him, Sean decides to negotiate with the Spirit, believing he can somehow escape the expectations placed upon him. During the discussions, Sean begins exploring the possibilities of what could be if he chooses to work with the Spirit. Although there is the promise of a world at peace, Sean is still reluctant to dedicate his life to the Spirit's mission. But when events far beyond Janus, and driven by the Praetorian Order's Dante Sabatini, directly impact the island, Sean realizes his life may not be his own. Trapped between the lure of Janus's tranquility and the Spirit's demands, Sean must decide if the love of a beautiful woman and the hopes of the island's spiritual leader are enough to force him into following what is seemingly his true destiny. The Word of Janus continues a riveting tale of intrigue, betrayal, and good versus evil as one man seeks to understand his legacy and its implications for the world's future.
