Besieged! Merely three months have gone by since Robert E. Lee destroyed over half of the Army of the Potomac. Now, in early July of 1863, his successor James Longstreet has Washington City, the capitol of the United States, under siege and Maryland is about to secede from the Union. To top it off, Reynolds and his Army of the Potomac has been badly hammered by this second invasion of the North and holding desperately for victory.

To make matters worse, a new power prepares to enter the conflict. Their entrance will make this civil war and expand it to be a global war that will span from the North American Continent, to Europe and also Asia.

Into the fray steps Lincoln's last hope for victory: Ulysses Simpson Grant. Grant is determined to defeat and destroy the South and plans a multi-pronged campaign. He will throw everything into one last campaign that will answer the question: who will win the American Civil War?

Read the epic conclusion to the alternate history trilogy called "very plausible" and "fine alternate history". Will the Union be restored? Or will it be the "Rise of the Confederacy"?
