Without much except lots of determination, feisty and independent Etta Hollister has been running the Flying H ever since her father's death one year ago. But with the ranch struggling mightily and a powerful enemy whose only goal is to break her, Etta is at the end of her rope. She finds her salvation in a wounded half-Indian gunslinger, Johnny Cheyenne, a darkly handsome man with a mysterious fire raging behind his dusky bedroom eyes.

More than just security awaits the blond beauty when she enlists Cheyenne's aid. There is a secret tenderness in him which just might join the two proud, lonely hearts forever.
