Who's Engaged? Climb the Learning Ladder to See introduces teachers to a practical and research-based lesson development process. This 30 day process sets the stage for engaging students to achieve steps on a Learning Ladder™ that ends with students applying a complex skill aligned to the Common Core Standards.

The Learning Ladder provides a visual for teachers to consider as they develop lessons viewing this process through a student's lens for the sole purpose of increasing student engagement in learning. The Learning Ladder reinforces teachers segmenting units of instruction with focused learning targets, coaching students as they apply aligned learning tasks, and creating strategies where students receive specific feedback by recognizing what they do well, identifying learning gaps, and creating solutions to improve.

In Who's Engaged? teachers learn how to apply a 30 day lesson development process, view teacher samples and reflections, and plan lessons with the support of an iPad app, iLessonReady™.
