Pararescueman Michael Northington's idealism snapped when his assignment prevented a friend from receiving life-giving care. Leaving behind a world that had dealt him too many betrayals, he sought solace on St. Croix. Life settled into a rhythm of teaching scuba to tourists and acquiring a taste for classical music until his battle buddies showed up on his island paradise.

Desperate to keep her parents' musical legacy alive and the atmospheric theater in repair, Elise Eisler listed for rent the studio she shared with her father. Exploring a romance with her childhood sweetheart, the artist has little interest in the mysterious stranger who moved into the cottage.

Coaxed back into the field, Michael uncovers the criminal political forces behind his friend's death. As he settles his painful past, he finds Elise is at the center of his promising future. But when deadly players blow into St. Croix at the same time Hurricane Hugo unleashes its fury on the island, Michael must employ all his skills to protect Elise.
