Jess "Shine" Deaton struggles to find redemption for his role in Danny's death. His widow, Camille must learn to live without him--her only protection from the outside world. Conrad "Cowboy" Lane fights to hold them both together while searching for the answers that will explain the events of that night. Tippy Everson, the awkward cemetery worker finds himself falling in love with Camille Hollis, and anticipates the day he can express it to her, but when his sister, Nat moves back to town, he knows his secrets won't stay hidden long.
