Psychology in Action Karen Huffman, Katherine Dowdell

Engage and Inspire through active learning with Karen Huffman and co-author Katherine Dowdell's Psychology in Action, the acknowledged leader of active learning and student success. Designed for introductory psychology courses, this flagship book's new edition helps students examine their own personal studying and learning styles with several new pedagogical aids -- encouraging students to apply what they are learning to their everyday lives. Through its welcoming voice, Psychology In Action continues to offer a program through the book and media with ongoing study tips and psychological techniques for mastering the material. Additionally, Huffman and Dowdell have created a new Video Tutorial Series explaining and contextualizing over 80 of the most difficult concepts in introductory psychology by using examples and applications not discussed in the text; hands-on demonstrations developed in the author's classroom and "virtual field trips" in which students see psychology in real world settings. Psychology in Action is available in alternate versions (eBooks and custom) for professors and students. For more information, visit the "Instructor's Resource" tab or "Student Resource" tab below.

Access to WileyPLUS Learning Space sold separately.

This text is an unbound, three hole punched version.
