Ancient wisdom is so practical, it's the most fun you can have while going green! This fascinating book gives consumers a colorful new way to end their dependence on paper gift wrap and plastic shopping bags! Author Patricia Lee tapped her Korean roots to bring the ancient art of scarf wrapping to the USA. She shares the simple techniques for knotting reusable fabric scarves into 10 styles of gift wrap and 6 must-make handbags. Patricia includes 6 additional scarf-tying methods for carrying odd shapes and beautifying household items. She also is including tips on how to make your own wrapping scarves. The text is reader friendly and the photos of knotted scarves are lovely. Says Patricia, "I just know that the time is right for America to embrace this idea. It not only reduces waste, but transforms the traditional approach to wrapping and carrying things in general. The wrapping scarf can be used over and over again and is beautiful and elegant."
