I Do: How to Build a Great Marriage Gabor Mihalec

Great marriages don't just happen; they are intentionally designed. This book explains how. A comprehensive, straightforward guide, I Do provides well-researched information about how to preserve your commitment, build a healthy life together, and enjoy a long-lasting relationship. From establishing relationship roles, resolving conflict, and connecting sexually to dealing with in-laws, managing money, and developing spirituality, the concepts in this book will give you and your future spouse the advantage of knowing what successful couples have learned about creating a strong marriage. In addition, you'll find thought-provoking exercises designed to help you and your future spouse explore, understand, and grow in the art of loving each other. You'll also understand why some relationships tend to fail, how society values contribute to a relationship's downfall, and what you can do to safeguard your marriage. This is the book every couple needs to read before-and even after-they say "I do."
