This book is a mixture of life and struggles, using the mechanics of poetry intertwined with plain English grammar. I first started writing seriously in 2009 on BlogSpot.com, since then and many years later, I had found my voice as a writer. The book has an air of irony, mystery and where the writer - that's metakes on different personas in a style that sometimes is blunt or to which I think sometimes sounds metallic in nature when oration is read from its passages; sticks to the mind like one who is awake inside of themselves. As a writer I am interested in words and its partitive formation in relation in how we think and hear to what is read.
