Empty Plains and Fields of Pages: Poems Steve D'Arms

If one can be certain of anything, it's that the world keeps turning, and that time stops for no one. Steve D'Arms's second collection of poetry traces memories of days and people gone by, follows the pursuit, acquisition, and loss of love, and the little things happening around us that remind us that life continues to speed ahead into the future, whether we're ready for it or not.
