King of Pain (The Darby Trilogy Book 2) Jason Jauron

This is the 2nd book of the Darby trilogy. It follows "Driven to Tears." This is an ADULT book. The horror story revolves around Jed Darby - now in his late 20s - and his struggles to replace a lost love, to find meaning in a corporate America that is utterly uninspiring, and to reconnect with a family that has grown distant. But we are also introduced to some young newlyweds enjoying wedding bliss. But nothing could have prepared the lovely wife for what was to come - things a husband should never do. The story takes place in the 1990s and features plenty of social commentary and rough language. There is intimacy and moments of violence throughout.
