She had known him all her life. But she had never seen him like this...

Skye is facing her shyness and fears once and for all, by appearing completely nude in a play by the notorious Esme. A play that involves standing naked and bound in front of an audience of 400 people.

Her heart is racing but she is ready to face her fears, until Esme tells her that there will be a second person naked on stage at the same time...Clay, the guy that had lived with her family since childhood. The guy she had never thought of that way before.

What will happen when the rest of the cast disappears, and Esme leaves her and Clay together backstage, still naked and unable to get away? And what will happen when Esme herself returns to turn up the heat?
