Onyx & Starr 4: A Forever Kind of Love Lady Lissa

Who would have imagined one man could make so many women crazy? Onyx is in love with Starr, his best friend, but cousins Mandy and Lucy cannot seem to let them be. Onyx is now a freshman in college and Starr is a senior in high school. Even though the two of them are apart, they are managing to make their relationship work. The distance does nothing but make them grow fonder. That saying absence makes the heart grow fonder is definitely true in this case. The two fall harder and more in love than they ever thought possible.

Starr's little surprise also fuels their burning fire. The pair are now closer than they've ever been before.

Starr's relationship with her mother has reached a point of no return, and they come to a point where she is ready to move in with her sister. But Starr's little bomb strengthens not only her relationship with Onyx, but also her mother's. It even helps repair the relationship between her sister Maggie and their mom.

Lucy takes drastic measures to get the man she feels she deserves, so she makes a decision that will change the rest of her life. Mandy feels the pressure of knowing that Onyx has never loved her. Hearing him say it leaves her devastated and out for blood.

Will Starr and Onyx get the happily ever after they so desperately want? Will Lucy's plan work or will she end up in jail? Find out what happens on this rollercoaster ride to ever after in ATL...
