Kidnapped by the Dragon Shifter

“Dorra,” he whispered into her ear. He said her name like a prayer. “Beautiful, exquisite Dorra.”

After realizing that he is becoming more reckless with his life, Anbjorn the magnificent alpha male dragon decides to take a female companion to remind him why living is important. He goes to Halldorra’s village and chooses her, remaining in his dragon form so that the humans will give him what he wants. Halldorra - a virgin in the village - agrees to sacrifice herself because she knows it will be burned if she doesn’t. She begins planning to kill herself when she gets the chance because the thought of being a dragon shifter’s bride is terrifying.

He realizes his plan is working – he already feels more alive with Halldorra in his life, and his lust for her becomes insatiable. Somehow he had to convince Halldorra that the only sacrifice she’d have to make was of her heart.
