Lu Hai was a fearless man. As the world champion of martial arts for three competitions, he was confident and capable of super martial arts. Working as a top bodyguard, he traveled all over the world and took the responsibility for the security work for the world's richest, most powerful and most influential person, but his life was riddled with misfortunes. He was deceived by others and became a prisoner, from now on, his life was full of twists and turns, he tried to improve everything around him and changed his plight by his superhuman stamina and ability. This book presents a wonderful picture that Chinese martial arts is extensive and profound and the bodyguard career in fire and water. The book also tells a story that how a young man tried to find the right path but degenerated into a bloodthirsty mob, and how he became a humble philanthropist from a living death prisoner.
