2001: On paper, Melody Finch seems to have it all—but when she receives the devastating news that her father's suffered a mental breakdown, her world comes crashing down around her. 1987: Melody Proudbow's father is special. He does an amazing impression of Fonzie. He owns more records than K-Mart. He dreams of being one of the Beach Boys and moving to California. He can see things other people can't. Are the mysterious men following him part of a sinister plot, or are they only a figment of his very vivid imagination? Melody intends to find out before it's too late.
