Licensed Premises: Law, Practice and Policy: Second Edition Philip Kolvin

This second edition - previously titled Licensed Premises: Law and Practice - focuses on UK licensing law legislation and what it means for professionals working in this area. It provides practical coverage of the UK's Licensing Act 2003. The structure of the book adopts a unique Q&A approach to relevant case law and legislation, making it a highly accessible text. The legislative changes that are covered include summary reviews and closure orders, the ability of licensing authorities to add conditions to licenses, and lap dancing.
