Adventures in the Dream State: Book 2: A Message from the Dawn Bell Brown Cliff

Imagine the countless millions of galaxies, the billions of suns and the incomprehensible trillions of dust particles emanating from the primal explosion caught and suspended in time with the energy and purpose of that beginning, permeating every moment of development. Surging outward in ever increasing complexity until it reaches us here on this tiny planet maybe among others where it evolves a form capable of understanding itself and communicating with other forms. A human body standing nearly completed at the pinnacle of billions of years of evolution with equally incomprehensible numbers of parts each with it's own autonomy and purpose working together to provide a vehicle to house a particum of that primordial light that it might know the formless within a formed creation. Awesome! We are becoming a conscious part of that original totality
