What is marriage, and why do marriages fail? Marriage is two people building a life together on the same foundation. Many marriages fail not because the husband or wife didn't want the marriage to work, but because neither of them knew how to fix the problem of an unhappy wife. An unhappy wife is a major structural problem in the foundation of a home and marriage. If the problem of an unhappy wife is not fixed or prevented, the marriage will become unstable and eventually fail.

You may be speaking the right love languages, but are you being heard? A love language expressed has to be received in order for it to be effective. This is not an easy task when the wife is unhappy because she is unable to receive the love her husband expresses to her, neither is she able to give him the love he desires.

Do you or your spouse know how to fix the #1 problem that could destroy your marriage? Marriages fail when neither spouse knows how to fix the problem of an unhappy wife. Cheer Up Your Wife is a practical how to guide that shows you:

- Why a happy wife is so critical to a husband's success in marriage.
- How to build a home using God's strategy for a happy marriage.
- How to use the do it yourself tools God has provided to fix or prevent the problem of an unhappy wife.
- How to be a husband who can confidently lead his wife into happiness and get there himself.
- How to be a wife who effectively supports and encourages her husband in cheering her up without offending him.

With the tools provided in each chapter of this book, you and your spouse can build, repair and maintain a lasting, divorce proof, happy marriage!
