Into Quarterly: Volume Two: Richmond

Each volume of Into Quarterly is a creative portrait of a different city, featuring the writing, photography, and design of local artists. In our second volume, we dive into Richmond, Virginia: a place with a charged history and a fast-changing present. Grit and charm abound--think Civil War monuments and 1800s row houses, but also street art, tattoos, and avant garde cuisine. The James River cuts through it all, stitched together by bridges. Maybe that's the best way to describe this city: a bridge between past and future, transformation roiling just below. Featuring 30 artists who are currently defining Richmond's creative tone--including Sonya Clark, Richard Roth, Terry Brown, Dean King, Ron Smith, Kate Thompson, Noah Scalin, Joshua Poteat, Tracey St. Peter, Nils Westergard, John S. Blake, and many more.
