All My Love (All Series Book 5) Natalie Ann

All alone in the world, Jordyn Montgomery is desperately trying to find something about her lineage. With her life in flux, she packs everything up and heads for a new city labeled on a postcard in a mysterious package that she discovered after her mother's death. Maybe she'd have more luck there, even if it was only a hunch.

Drew Palmer has always been close to his sister. When she moved away, he'd thought he could handle it, only he couldn't. It didn't take much to convince his father—the only other immediate family he had remaining—to pack up and move close to her.

Drew isn't looking for love, or a relationship, just a good time. He's young still, almost thirty. Plenty of time for that down the road. Except sometimes when you aren't looking, that's when love slams into you full force.

Mature content intended for over 18 years of age.
