(Note: the book is in Hindi only!)

The animals are back! This delightful series tells the story of what happens when the animals, like many young children, don't want to wash, eat, sleep, behave, share, go to school, take their medicine, or get vaccinated. In Episode 1, we talk about washing and personal hygiene. Our little readers will find that their favourite animals don't want to wash: "No, no, no... I don't want to wash!"... What can we do about it?

There is something special about this new book and one can only imagine how much it can benefit to so many children because of the very message it conveys about personal hygiene learning for children. The book will also please all the parents who struggle with their little ones at bath time or at any other moment when personal hygiene is paramount.
