Abandon Rage (Without Hesitation Book 2) C. D. Stephens

After the murder of her children, Lindsey Riley sought revenge. She survived eliminating one of the master minds; El Condor. But she was wounded and had to recover. During that recovery Lindsey gains more discipline and additional expertise. Her remaining target is Marcella Dupree, the daughter of an organized crime boss from the east coast.

Marcella Dupree and her husband Louis are involved in a struggle for territory against Bernardo Constanza. That struggle has warped into a competition that involves killing officers of the law. Lindsey and her companions are hired to protect some of the law officials. Soon they go on the offense where they cross paths with the Hanzard boys, from Louisiana, who have the same objective as theirs.

Susan, Lindsey's sister will not accept that Lindsey is dead. She is being moved from place to place for protection but soon she heads out on her own to find Lindsey.

Lindsey begins to take a look at the life she is living and wonders if she will ever be able to go home. Because Constanza is trying to kidnap Dupree's children, Lindsey, against her objections, becomes the protector of Marcella Dupree's children. All battling parties head for a small town in southern Louisiana during the aftermath of a hurricane. Lindsey is forced to retreat along with Marcella into the swamp and a fight for survival.
