Before the heartbreak, the life-altering choices, and real life closed in on them, they were just two kids in love.

Nick Sutter, the town bad boy, star of Pittsford High School's football team, and all around playboy wasn't used to having to work for dates. Leah Carmichael, Pittsford's Golden Girl, and star on the track team had no desire to land a boyfriend. When she walked into Physics class on the first day of school her junior year, and realized who was in her class, she vowed to ignore him. Nick had no intention of letting her off the hook though. He patiently waited until the right moment to let her know he wanted her.

Unable to resist him, Leah agreed to go on a date. Try as she might, the feelings she'd been suppressing all year came to the surface, and washed over her like a tidal wave. She wanted him, and he wanted her, but...Nick had scouts ready to make his football dreams a reality.

Deciding that Leah was more important than his future, Nick gave up his chance to play at the college level. He chose to stay behind, and build the foundation for what he thought would be a solid future for him and Leah. Only Leah had other plans... she wanted to get out of Pittsford as fast as possible, and was willing to give up anything to do it, including Nick. When the Olympic scouts offered her a chance of a lifetime, she couldn't tell them 'no.'

We saw forgiveness in Shattered, desire in Restored, and unconditional love in Renewed. Now, see how it all started in Destined- Nick and Leah's beginning.

This book contains strong language, graphic sexual situation, and may not be suitable for readers under the age of 17.
