With her life nearing its end, Millie Steele wants desperately to see her grandson's faith restored - and him happily married to a Christian girl. When she enlists Kally McCoy as her home caregiver, the pretty young woman's presence seems only to antagonize Preston Steele. Preston loves his grandmother and, wanting to see her rest in peace, pretends to fall in love with Kally. He puts on a good act, and even attends church with Kally. But soon, the things he hears at church and his growing friendship with Kally begin to make a real change in his heart. Kally has grown to love Preston and has even accepted his proposal of marriage. But will the discovery of his game of pretend kill love's flame?
