Done in the Dark is the introduction to the March family, a prominent family in Hampton, Virginia. They are a Christian family with many secrets that have yet to be uncovered. Lucia March, the younger of the two March girls finds herself pregnant and unsure of the father at first. She is also estranged from her family and has not seen her sister in quite some time but comes to find love and romance in an unexpected way. This starts a strange chain of events that culminate into a violent standoff with her sister near the end of her pregnancy leaving Lucia's husband shot and Lucia in labor. Faced with another emergency, Lucia has to make significant changes in her surroundings. She begins to confide in an unlikely source who may hold the key to her happiness, but someone is threatening to steal her joy. Can she cope with all of the madness in her life or will secrets hidden away cause her to lose it all? Like they say, everything that's done in the dark will come to the light....or does it?
