Zyaire Streeter lived in a world ruled by money, violence, and an unwavering code of honor. A keen understanding of the streets and being internally driven are essential for surviving in this kind of environment. Unlike any, these qualities separated Zyaire from his peers, which elevated him to a top-tier money-maker. Drawn instantly into the unapologetic streets of Ensley, Alabama, a chanced encounter presented a hustle unlike anything Zyaire has ever experienced. Fully aware of the consequences before him, Zyaire struggles to make sense of his past while eternally at odds with turning his back on the game. While secretly orchestrating a spectacular heist, Zyaire soon learns that the F.B.I has cleverly infiltrated his close circle of friends. Determined to find the traitor in his clique, Zyaire has come full circle with the most difficult decision of his life: choosing between his family and his friends. Growing up on the west side of Birmingham, Alabama in a "trust no one" atmosphere, Zyaire discovers that they are one in the same.
